

Announcing, Broadcasting, Compering, Dubbing and E-books

If you have the right voice and the self confidence, 'ABCDE' can mean good publicity and even better money.

Content: The workshop will cover the techniques involved in Announcing, Broadcasting, Compering, Dubbing and the narration of E-books. The program will aim at establishing the nuances of 'announcing' as different from the styles of speaking involved in 'compering' and 'public speaking'. Broadcasting will cover the essentials of performing for Radio & Television. Dubbing (theory only) will deal with developing a sense of timing and exploiting the 'talent' of a voice-over artiste. E explores the styles of narrating for electronic recordings of print media (E-books).
